KEY TAKEAWAYS

1. Compliance is the baseline: Asking, “How can we do this better?” helps build a more inclusive culture.
2. Inclusive caretaking: Supporting workers & the lives they care for benefits everyone.
3. Embracing disability: Lived experience makes accessibility possible.

THE PEOPLE BEHIND THE SUMMIT

CONNECTING FOR IMPACT
2026 Disability Inclusion Summit

The people behind the Summit turn shared experience into momentum for change.

> It felt like a room full of people who care deeply about this work. The Summit also modeled what it was about. Accessibility wasn't an add-on; it was designed into the event from the start.
> – KARIN BOXER

> What stood out most wasn't just the content. It was the community. The conversations, connections, and ideas generated over these two days will continue shaping how we advance disability inclusion.
> – MONIKKA COLBERT

> I left inspired to continue to push for disability inclusion in both the workplace and our projects. Excellent job for putting on another great summit!
> – TYLER LINDQUIST
